ORDER

Plaintiffs,

v.

LSRI, LLC d/b/a Lone Star Rebar Installers, a
Texas Limited Liability Company,

Defendant.

HERNÁNDEZ, District Judge:

Plaintiff labor unions and employee benefit plans move that Defendant LSRI, LLC, be held in civil contempt for failing to comply with this Court's February 5, 2023, Order that Defendant provide specified documents for an audit. ECF 20. On June 21, 2023, the Court ordered Defendant to show cause as to why it should not be held in contempt of court. ECF 21. Defendant was served with the show cause order. ECF 22. The Court held a show cause hearing on July 7, 2023, and Defendant did not appear.

CONCLUSION

Plaintiffs' Motion for Contempt [20] is GRANTED. The Court finds that Defendant is in contempt of court for failing to comply with this Court's Order of February 5, 2023. The Court awards Plaintiffs attorney fees incurred in filing their Motion for Contempt. The Court also imposes on Defendant a fine of $200 per day for each day that Defendant fails to comply with this Court's Order of February 5, 2023. The fine will begin ten days from the date of this Order. Plaintiffs are to serve a copy of this Order on Defendant by certified mail within three business days.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: July 7, 2023.

MARCO A. HERNÁNDEZ
United States District Judge
